Subject: Re: [TheRocketdyneInformationSociety] Re: DTSC Listening Sessions

Well,

I "yelled". Right! Good thing there were a number of other intelligent and rational people who were present at that table.

The CAG issue is dead. The decision has been made. As far as I can tell DTSC has REPEATEDLY given her all the reasons needed to make her satisfied. She will never quit.

She should s or get off the pot about filing her writ. Take DTSC to court or SHUT UP! This is no longer about SSFL and the cleanup or even about the CAG... it's all about Christina. She has made herself the center of attention and she's basking in it. The demands she is making on DTSC has ground this investigation, virtually, to a halt. This has gone on for far, far too many months, and I, for one, am tired of hearing about it.

There are only five people demanding a CAG, as far as I can see. Her, Bill, Delainie, Mary and Sue. They are definitely in the minority. Everyone else has either beenthreatened with legal action, insulted, yelled at, called names, received threatening e-mail, told they should be fired or in some way bullied into silence. For reference, please read the letter from PSR-LA to Christina that she published on RIS. No one is speaking up because a public flame war will instantly develop and it will be SO counter productive. It's getting harder and harder for me to hold my tongue, but I feel that the moment I speak I will be attacked, or worse, my WIFE will be attacked AGAIN!!! I would like to post this on RIS, but once again, I do not have the energy to deal with the resulting flame war! Rational dialog and reasonable compromise are impossible.

I ABHOR bullies!

As I've stated repeatedly, I AM in favor of a CAG, BUT, no one in this community has the necessary leadership skills to establish and run THIS one, myself and Dan Hirsch included. Certainly NOT Christina. If she DID have those skills, the CAG would have been up and running months ago! The logical alternative is to expand the DTSC Technical Meetings to become more CAG-like. That is a goal that I have the utmost confidence in DTSC, Rick Brausch and Susan Callery to achieve. I completely understand the reasons and rationale behind the Listening Sessions and I'm very happy that DTSC has held them.

DTSC, since 2007, has been the best friend this community has had. Keep up the good work. There, at least, is one vote of confidence.

Peace,
John Luker
